

About us

Zoe and Mark Swan would like to welcome you to their bed and breakfast, close to the sea looking out across Lyme Bay and the valley in which Lyme Regis nestles.

The Location

Lyme Regis has something for everyone, sandy beaches, cafes and restaurants famous for the Jurassic coast, every year it gives up more of it's fossils, a boon for collectors with a wide range of interest and wonderful walks.

We are located along a private drive and just a very short walk to Lyme Regis golf club or just a brisk walk to the shops.

Rhododendron House

How to Find us

From A35 East, Dorchester / Bridport

Stay on A35 until Charmouth roundabout.

Take second exit on roundabout sign posted to Lyme Regis the A3052. If you reach the traffic lights in Lyme Regis you have gone too far. As you see the Lyme Regis fossil sign on your left and the sea ahead turn right into Colway Lane, when you meet the "T" junction, fork right, Colway Rise is a small private turning on the right hand side about 200 metres down.

From Axminster

From Axminster take B3261 out of Axminster heading towards Bridport, at A35 turn left towards the same and then follow instructions for A35 East.

From A35 West, Exeter / Honiton / Axminster

Continue on A35, just as you climb past Axminster you will see Raymonds Hill. Take the second turning right, it has a large white coloured public house, the Hunters Lodge right on the corner. Turn into B3165 towards Lyme, pub will be on your left as you turn down by the side of it. Stay on B3165 past hedgehog corner, Burrowshot, then into Yawl and Uplyme. In Uplyme fork left into Hays Lane just past second width restriction point.

At the bottom of Hays lane turn left into Colway Lane, drive past all the turnings, you will start to climb out of Lyme, Colway Rise will be found about 300 metres on the left hand side before the end of the road, it is a small private road leading up to the entrance of number 3, Colway Rise.

From Crewkerne

Take the B3165 out of Crewkerne heading towards Axminster.

Stay on the B3165 until you reach the A35 at Raymonds Hill.

Turn right and then immediately left by the side of the Hunters Lodge pub and then follow instructions for A35 East.
